Club Meeting

Thursday 31st May 2018

AGENDA

Apologies: Roger & Patricia Withers
Peter Giles

Action

1. Welcome – Nigel thanked Roger for chairing the last meeting plus Keith and Margaret for the slide show.

We also had a talk on 'Dogs for Good' from Sue Harvey with her assistance dog Flint, who many of us see in Thame on a regular basis. Sue gave us a very informative talk on how the organisation has progressed and that funding is via donations and fundraising as there is no central funding.

Sue's talk raised £120 for this very worthy cause.

2. Programme 2018

The trip to the Suisse Normande, was a great success and enjoyed by everyone. Nigel thanked Angela for organising a superb trip and Ron for the route. The hotel was excellent, the owner and staff were delightful and the food was excellent.

2.1 Club nights

2.2 Interim Meetings

- July 8th- Trip to the national Arboretum at Tamworth.

Nigel informed everyone that on the way back from the Suisse Normande trip he met a chap at the ferry port who runs a Classic Car Hub on the old historic site of RAF Bibury? He suggested that club members have a look as we could organize a date to visit.

2.3 Scheduled Events

- June 9th – Thame Town Carnival. E-mail has been sent out and Bert has two cars so far so if anyone would like to take part then please let him know asap. Usual gathering place prior to event is outside Phoenix Electrical. There are lots of people away and if Bert does not get a reasonable response he will cancel.
- July 26th - RAF Benson Families Day. A total of 15 cars are booked in at present but there is still time to book if anyone wants to go. Please send details to Keith which needs to include, information on your car plus your name. In doubt please contact Keith Broadey.
